

Default Question Block

Welcome to the College of Law! The questions that follow are designed to help your faculty and career services advisors learn more about you, your academic interests, and your future professional goals. We understand and expect that your interests and goals may change in the weeks and months ahead. Your initial answers to these questions are just a starting point. We hope to use your answers in this and future questionnaires to assist us in providing you with personalized guidance regarding coursework, co-curricular activities, clinics, externships, and job opportunities. By completing this form, you are giving the College of Law permission to share your completed form with your faculty and career services advisors for the limited purposes outlined above.

Please provide your first and last name (and the name you prefer to be called if it is not your first name).

What led to your decision to attend law school (e.g., a prior job, a student leadership position, a formative personal experience, etc.)?

As a new student to the College of Law, what are you most excited about?

As a new student to the College of Law, what are you most apprehensive about?

How do you plan to achieve balance while you are in law school (e.g., exercise, hobbies, interests, family, etc.)?

Law school is a time to explore professional career options. What career options would you like to explore during your time in law school (list up to 3)? Please note that a career option does not need to be a traditional legal job.

In light of the career options listed in response to the previous question, please provide a sentence explaining why each listed career option is appealing to you.

List up to three of your strengths (e.g., a skill, a character trait, a particular value, base of knowledge, etc.).

List up to three areas for personal growth (e.g., a skill, a character trait, a particular value, base of knowledge, etc.).

What do you think are the legal profession's core values?

How do you define professionalism?

Is there anything else you would like your faculty advisor to know?

