

Default Question Block

Q1.

Welcome to the second semester of your 1L year. The questions that follow are designed to help your faculty and career services advisors help you to further define your future professional goals. We understand and expect that your interests and goals may have changed from last semester and may continue to change in the weeks and months ahead. Your answers to these questions will assist us in providing you with personalized guidance regarding coursework, co-curricular activities, clinics, externships, and job opportunities. By completing this form, you are giving the College of Law permission to share your completed form with your faculty and career services advisors for the limited purposes outlined above.

Q2. Please provide your first and last name (and the name you prefer to be called if it is not your first name).

Q3. As a second semester 1L, what are you most excited about?

Q4. As a second semester 1L, what are you most apprehensive about?

Q5. Have you been able to achieve balance while you are in law school? If so, what strategies did you employ to achieve balance (e.g., exercise, hobbies, interests, family, etc.)? If not, what prevented you from achieving balance?

Q6. Law school is a time to explore professional career options. What career options would you like to explore now that you are in your second semester of law school (list up to 3)? Please note that a career option does not need to be a traditional legal job.

Q7. In light of the career options listed in response to the previous question, please provide a sentence explaining why each listed career option is appealing to you.

Q8. List up to three of your strengths (e.g., a skill, a character trait, a particular value, base of knowledge, etc.). Have you identified different strengths than those you listed at the beginning of law school?

Q9.

List up to three areas for personal growth (e.g., a skill, a character trait, a particular value, base of knowledge, etc.). Have the areas you have identified for personal growth changed since the beginning of law school?

Q10.

What do you think are the legal profession's core values? Has your understanding of the profession's core values changed since the beginning of law school? If so, why? If not, why not?

Q11. How do you define professionalism? Has your definition of professionalism changed since the beginning of law school? If so, why? If not, why not?

Q12. Is there anything else you would like your faculty advisor to know?
